

TESTIMONIALS

What is the #1 thing about THEE that you like the most?

- I really loved our first meeting with our facilitator, she put me completely at ease that this was the best choice for us.
- That I've had no issues :)
- The sign up process was very easy and simple. Also, the videos on your YouTube were very informative.
- The additional info
- The wonderful support provided by the staff.
- Their great HEP planning (Home Education [Program Plan]) was easy
- It is easy and straightforward
- Our facilitator!!
- I love how there is no pressure and our facilitator has been wonderful. Any and all of my questions are always answered right away. Purchase orders were very easy also.
- communication
- Freedom
- The freedom to choose our curriculum and style of teaching.
- Helpfulness of staff
- The way the people take care of you when you call or at a meeting. Very reassuring and make sure everything is right before they give you information
- Ability to have a first hand understanding of child's progress and flexibility that creates more potential space for busy lives and inevitable complicating events thereby providing a higher level of care to the well being of the student.
- I like that it's easy to contact someone, that I get a response right away when I ask questions.
- You guys know what you're doing
- Everyone seems nice.
- Facilitator encouragement
- Super friendly staff when you call.
- Everyone is great to deal with, very helpful
- They seem to have a really great system and are very organized compared to other boards I've researched
- I really liked the video series on all the topics, especially high school and diploma options.
- Brett and Natasha are always there to answer questions
- I like that you don't push certain faiths or curriculums
- how informative, helpful and welcoming everyone has been
- My facilitator is great!
- The people I've dealt with
- Our Freedom, and patient friendly staff that understands
- We've only just begun this September so it's all new. I'm happy with everything so far. :)
- My facilitator, Lise.
- Flexibility
- community minded and diverse in areas offered.
- How helpful they have been to a first time homeschooler
- I'm new this year to home schooling but our facilitator has been amazing
- the flexibility and friendly staff
- the facilitator is great
- The understanding and availability
- What you stand for is what I like most about THEE
- the freedom I have to teach my boys at their pace
- The support to allow parents to be 100% in charge of their children's education
- Sign up and reimbursement was really easy. The virtual tour information on the website was amazing.
- great support, there if I need them,
- Information has been very easy to find.
- How open minded and easy going the administration is. Support is great. Facilitator is awesome. (I can't choose just 1 thing I like)
- Our facilitator is encouraging
- I can't pick just one thing! The staff are fantastic, they make the sign up process, education choices and process, reimbursement process, and everything in-between easy and headache free! The best decision we made for educating our 3 kids!

- versatile. laid back... going good so far
- I've had a great experience with everything so far
- I am very happy with the help and support from THEE, nothing to complain
- Freedom to choose and ease of Registration.
- Freedom to homeschool my kids as I see fit. The online form to register as homeschoolers and our facilitator Becky May.
- ease of communication
- Answered all my phone calls when I had questions :)
- It is nice and close and everyone is so helpful and friendly!
- We love our facilitator!
- We love our facilitator Lise. I love that THEE is encouraging and helpful. Brett has amazing videos on the site that I share with new homeschooling parents.
- Freedom and our facilitator Christine
- Our facilitator
- My favorite thing about THEE is how supportive the entire team is of each families individual path of educational choices and how our facilitators meet us where we are on the journey without judgement.
- The amount of information and videos they have available for parents!!
- My facilitator, how well done the website is and the communication
- Our facilitator has been great.
- So far so good
- Very informative and patient when dealing with an unsure mom new to homeschooling.
- That happy supportive staff.
- The helpful staff and service to get started into the year of school.
- how helpful Natasha has been :)
- easy to talk to and very quick with responses when you have questions
- Very helpful and full of resources
- The sign up process was very easy and simple. Also, the videos on your YouTube were very informative.
- super kind and very helpful staff
- How easy it was to register
- Our facilitator.
- videos on website about pretty much everything
- Quick responses
- The kindness and welcoming environment, always been there for answering all my questions ^^
- The ease with which it was to register and the laid back approach to parenting/homeschooling style
- How supportive the facilitators are when it comes to encouraging me to homeschool my kids in the way that best works for them and our family.
- The amazing facilitators & support
- Freedom
- Love [our facilitator] Lise
- my educator
- This is our first year, but I would say how wonderful our facilitator is. She understands our learning style.
- Very helpful
- all seems good
- friendly staff
- I like THEE's transparent communication. As a new homeschooling parent, I found the website very informative when looking at different board choices.
- Was paired with an excellent facilitator and happy with the simple process to submit program plans.
- Their prompt response to communication
- Jacquie! [one of our THEE facilitators]
- Freedom
- The faculty are very supportive and helpful :)
- Ability to homeschool, freedom to individualize curriculum
- I love that we have freedom to teach our kids as we see fit, but if we have questions or need pointers there is someone there to guide us. Thanks for all you do!
- I love that we have freedom to teach our kids as we see fit, but if we have questions or need pointers there is someone there to guide us. Thanks for all you do!
- Very helpful when I was figuring. Out how to homeschool in Alberta
- Efficient support and online learning videos
- How easy they make coming into the homeschooling world
- Everyone is really friendly and helpful
- The support so far.
- The staff are very friendly and helpful
- Early funding and easy access to funding through po's etc.
- Laid back with clear guidelines

- Freedom to teach as we choose
- Help is there when I need it, but I don't feel bombarded when I don't
- Always get answers/assistance when need support.
- Their willingness to let me choose how my children learn.
- Faith, staff, allowing families to learn at their pace at home during a global pandemic has been a blessing
- It is my first time with THEE. Only been a couple months so far, and I still have to submit my receipts.
- The support of the facilitators and how clean and clear the videos are on the website for new parents or parents with questions
- The staff
- How easy the whole process was
- Virtual open house
- Very friendly and helpful staff. My facilitator is awesome!
- Friendly willing to help
- Very helpful staff
- I am not sure but our facilitator was very friendly and easy to deal with and our PO was so fast!
- Everyone of the staff I have interacted with have been friendly, helpful and knowledgeable.
- The support, response and clarifications.
- How supportive the facilitator is
- The freedom they've given me to educate my kids the way I think is best.
- Your team works with incredible speed and efficiency!! I am continuously surprised, and this journey has been an incredible experience thanks to THEE Team!!
- How comprehensive the website is, and how quickly I receive replies if I have questions.
- The facilitator is awesome !
- their informative approach
- I loved all the videos explaining all the details of the things I needed to know as a first time homeschooler this year
- All the positive and encouraging support I receive from everyone.
- I like that I don't have to drive to meetings
- When I first wrote to THEE to ask my many questions about which board I would like to sign with, my questions were all answered. Each question was copied from my email, highlighted and pasted to the reply email, above the answer.
- the communication from the team
- Brett's wisdom and guidance
- flexibility in my schooling choices
- very responsive with questions
- The wonderful support system (people) they have!
- The relief from the Calgary Board of Education and Rockyview School Board.
- they all have experience to help us
- very supportive and always available when you have questions or need help
- Definitely our facilitator and the staff.
- The wonderful support system (people) they have!
- how helpful they are.
- a lot of info is available on your website
- Registration and homeschool plan process
- Our facilitator is so sweet, kind and eased my nerves about everything on our first zoom meeting.
- That they have answers to questions about homeschooling highschool.
- They make it simple to register
- Love our facilitator and appreciated how fast we got our reimbursement
- I love your website- all the info I need is there, the videos are great, and I can answer almost any question I need just from going to the website. As a bonus, it is also easy to navigate.
- How easy you made homeschooling to a first time homeschooler, especially during these crazy times
- That they are non intrusive and a Christian organization
- How easy it is to do most things. (Love that I can do everything electronically, instead of mail/fax!)
- I appreciate how helpful the staff is. Natasha and Brett went out of their way to help out my oldest to achieve his diploma.
- the facilitator we've had is amazing! she's so helpful and knowledgeable. the process of thee is easy, compared to other homeschooling options out there.
- My facilitator