

TRADITIONAL
HOME
EDUCATION
EXPERTS

Home School With Us

FAQ ROUND 2: Questions

1. Will you [THEE] need the parent to give a copy of the birth certificate again with each school year?
2. Who will tell the previous school, that my child has been enrolled at, that we will now be home educating?
3. How early, prior to the upcoming school year, may a parent purchase a learning resource and have that resource be reimbursed?
4. Direct Deposit option for receiving your reimbursement funds: Am I still able to participate in the direct deposit process?
5. As homeschoolers, do we need to follow the public school academic calendar in terms of start and end dates and even holiday dates?
-Can we start in August and end in April?
6. Other than fulfilling the learning outcomes, are there any other requirements such as a certain number of days or certain number of hours that my children need to have during the year?
7. What is your opinion of the GED?
8. Does having a transcript that shows that a student earned course credits but did not earn the high school diploma hurt the student in the context of gaining admission to post-secondary institutions or opportunities?
9. Can a student change his/her decision regarding earning or not earning high school credits during any year during the high school years?
10. Do I as a home education parent have to assign a grade level to my child?

11. Is THEE not a good fit for a certain type of home education family?
12. Do we [THEE] provide parents with the opportunity to give marks on courses toward a transcript in high school?
13. My daughter currently has an IPP in place at her school. Is this something that we would continue to do while homeschooling?
14. What is my [parent] role as their [the children's] teacher?
15. What is the curriculum like?
16. What costs are there?
17. How much funding is available per student?
-How do I access that funding?
18. What type of support can I expect to receive from THEE?